Advanced to PASL International Finals (Fredericksburg, Virginia). Finished number six (6) out of fifty-four (54) teams in final standings PASL International Finals.

“Last season, most of our players were new to playing indoor at the level of the PASL. So it took the team some time to adapt to the nuances of the indoor game. But as the season went on, the team continued to improve, which was evident in our results. So, with the majority of our players returning and having a season of the PASL under their belts, it should be another great one,” said Tonio Paternostro, Executive Director and Assistant Head Coach.

The Kansas City Comets of the MISL to the Kansas City Attack of the NPSL have a long storied tradition in Kansas City. The KC Kings are looking to fill the void left from no professional indoor soccer team. The Kansas City Soccer Dome has been the Home to indoor soccer in Kansas City for over 25 years, whether it was the Official Training Facility of the Comets or the Attack in the past 23 years or all the youth and adults who grew up playing at the Dome. “We hope to again provide something special to the Indoor Soccer Community of Kansas City, and pack the Dome on Saturday nights,” said Team General Manager, Brian Budzinski.
