Kansas City Kings Test the PASL-Pro League

The Kansas City Kings will travel across the state of Missouri on January 24, 2009 to face the St. Louis Illusion of the Professional Arena Soccer League (PASL-Pro).

The PASL-Pro league is the league right above where the Kings reside, the PASL-Premier league. The match will kick-off at 7:15 pm at The Game Arena in Glen Carbon Illinois.

The St. Louis Illusion holds a record of 4-4 in the PASL-Pro season and is undefeated at home. Coaching the Illusion is Jamie Swanner who carries a boosted lineup of many former St. Louis Steamer players, including, Justin Mcmillan, Joe Reineger, Daryl Doran, and Elvir Kafedzic.

The Kings currently sit at the top of the PASL Premier League with a 3-0-1 record. The Kansas City Kings are sophomore members of the Premier Arena Soccer League and are the defending 2007/2008 Midwest Division Champions. "I am really excited to have this opportunity to see where we really are as a team, and see how the boys stack up against some big time players," Kings Head Coach Vlatko Andonovski stated.

The Kings mission is to offer a platform to train, showcase and develop the area's top collegiate players for preparation of professional playing opportunities.

The PASL is excited to introduce to the league the First Annual Open Cup for the PASL. The cup began November 22 and has been hosted by PASL Premier Team Facilities, and other local soccer Facilities around the country. The winning teams then qualify to participate in the regional event. "The Kings have earned the right to participate against the best teams in our Pro league, and will certainly not embarrass themselves," PASL Commissioner Kevin Milikan said.

Kansas City Kings- Are located at The Kansas City Soccer Dome- 5909 Equitable Road, Kansas City Missouri 64120.
