Kansas City Soccer Dome Code of Conduct

Soccer players should always exhibit good sportsmanship and play fair. Players must understand that, when they are on the field, they are representatives of the Kansas City Soccer Dome, as well as their team, coach, parents and the community. They should, therefore, act accordingly. All Kansas City Soccer Dome players should adhere to the following:

- Treat all coaches, opponents, teammates, parents, and officials with respect.
- Display self-control in all situations. Avoid use of foul or abusive language.
- Avoid racially derogatory comments and comments suggesting sexual harassment.
- Always play within the laws of the game. (Fair Play).
- Shake hands with opponents at the conclusion of every match and refrain from such acts that would be considered disrespectful of an opponent.
